

Young, handsome researchers in press photo session instead of doing actual research□

Our recent research covered by local news. The newspaper El Periódico published an article (online version available here) [IN SPANISH].

Our recent research results drew the attention of local press. El Periódico published an article covering our collaboration with Adobe Systems and our published results in ACM Transactions on Graphics (The Top One journal of our field, and one of the most important journals in Computer Science).

Our research in the news!
